Occupational Analysis Presentation

Agenda Item 11
January 28, 2016

Occupational Analysis Presentation by Heidi Lincer-Hill, Chief Office of Professional Examination Services

Purpose of the item

The Board will receive a presentation from DCA's Office of Professional Examination Services (OPES). OPES will provide the Board with an overview of the Occupational Analysis process and answer any questions Board Members may have.

Action(s) requested

No action required.

Background

Currently, the Board is working with DCA's Office of Professional Examination Services to conduct an Occupational Analysis (OA). The Office of Professional Examination Services provides professional psychometric expertise in examination development and validation services to DCA's Board, Bureaus, and Committees. OPES conducts Occupational Analyses of professions from a consumer protection perspective.

The purpose of the OA is to define the practice of chiropractic in California in terms of actual job tasks that newly licensed chiropractors must be able to perform safely and competently at the time of licensure. The results of the occupational analysis will serve as the basis for the chiropractic licensing examination in California.

Generally, an occupational analysis and examination outline should be updated every five years to remain current.

The Board is currently recruiting licensees to serve as Subject Matter Experts (SME) for one or more of the OA workshops. SMEs are essential to the OA process. A diverse group of SMEs ensures that all area of current practice and different approaches to practice are represented.

Chiropractor Occupational Analysis (OA):
Step-by-Step Process

Major phases of the Chiropractor Occupational Analysis (OA) project will be as follows:

1. Literature Review

- a. OPES staff will review current laws, rules, and regulations; reference books and documents; journal articles; examination specifications; and other relevant data in order to develop an understanding of the profession.
- b. OPES staff will develop a preliminary list of tasks and knowledge for the practice based on findings from the literature review.

2. Interviews

- a. OPES staff will conduct interviews with a sample of California-licensed Chiropractors. This can be done by telephone and onsite (at the licensee's practice location) to further refine the task and knowledge lists.

3. Task and Knowledge Statement Workshops

- a. OPES staff will convene two focus groups with a sample of California-licensed Chiropractors to review task and knowledge statements created from the literature review and licensee interviews.
- b. During each focus group, licensees will evaluate the statements for accuracy, currency, terminology, and completeness. Licensees will edit, delete, or add statements to the lists of tasks and knowledge as needed.

4. OA Questionnaire Distribution

- a. OPES staff will develop an OA Questionnaire utilizing the finalized task and knowledge statements from the two task and knowledge statement focus group workshops.
- b. The draft OA Questionnaire will be administered to a pilot group of California-licensed Chiropractors to ensure completeness and clarity prior to the final OA Questionnaire distribution.
- c. The OA Questionnaire will be administered to a stratified random sample via an online questionnaire tool. A mailer invitation will be sent to provide link information.
- d. In the OA Questionnaire, licensees will be asked to rate the task and knowledge statements on scales such as frequency, importance, and whether mastery is expected at entry level.
- e. The survey response will be monitored to determine when a demographically representative sample of the population is achieved.

5. Analyze OA Questionnaire Data

- a. OPES staff will analyze the data collected from the OA Questionnaire to summarize the frequency and importance ratings for the task and knowledge statements.

6. Review of Results from OA Workshops

- a. OPES staff will convene two focus groups with a sample of California-licensed Chiropractors to review the OA Questionnaire data and finalize the description of practice.

7. Prepare and Submit Validation Report

- a. OPES staff will prepare a report of all OA processes and results and submit the report to the Board of Chiropractic Examiners in both bound and electronic format.

OCCUPATIONAL ANALYSIS

Purpose	An occupational analysis (or job analysis) defines a profession in terms of the actual tasks that new licensees must be able to perform safely and competently at the time of licensure. In order to develop a licensing examination that is fair, job-related, and legally defensible, it must be based solidly upon what licensees actually do on the job. The occupational analysis should be reviewed routinely every five to seven years to verify that it accurately describes current practice.
Process	Typically, the process begins by selecting and interviewing a sample of licensees who accurately represent the geographic, ethnic, gender, experience, and practice specialty mix of the profession. During the interview, they identify the tasks that they perform within major categories of their profession and the knowledge required to perform those tasks. A committee of subject matter experts meets to finalize the task and knowledge statements, and develop a questionnaire. The questionnaire is sent to a representative sample of licensed practitioners. The data are analyzed, and the results are used to update the description of practice and/or develop a content outline.
Content Outline	The content outline specifies the tasks and knowledge that a newly licensed practitioner is expected to master by the time of licensure, and identifies the relative weight or percentage of each major subject area to be assessed in an examination. The content outline is used to develop questions for and validate new examinations.
Content Validation Strategy	In order for an examination to be valid, it must be empirically linked to the content outline of a recent occupational analysis. The Office of Professional Examination Services recommends that occupational analyses be validated no less than every five to seven years.
Legal Standards and Guidelines	A number of statutes, standards, and professional guidelines set criteria for the licensing process in California. These include the Standards for Educational and Psychological Testing, the Federal Uniform Guidelines for Employee Selection Procedures, the Civil Rights Act of 1991, California Government Code section 12944 of the California Fair Employment and Housing Act, Business and Professions Code section 139, and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, as amended.
Contact	To learn more about these and other examination-related services, please contact the Office of Professional Examination Services at (916) 575-7240.

A Guide to the Chiropractic Profession: Getting licensed and staying licensed

STATE OF CALIFORNIA

- Application. Complete the Application for a Chiropractic License, which must include your 2-inch-by-2-inch photograph. Be sure to use the Check Sheet for the Application for a Chiropractic License to ensure your application packet is complete. Both forms can be found on the Board's website, www.chiro.ca.gov.
- Fingerprinting. Live Scan is a process that scans your fingerprints electronically and is mandatory for applicants who are California residents. Take the Request for Live Scan Service form to a Live Scan site for fingerprint scanning. Out-of-state residents must submit fingerprint cards.
- Background check. California chiropractic license applicants must disclose all citations/arrests on your record—whether set aside, dismissed, or expunged—in response to any direct question in any questionnaire or application for licensure.

The profession

Chiropractic is a health care profession that emphasizes the power of one's own body to heal itself without the use of drugs or surgery. The practice of chiropractic focuses on the relationship between structure (primarily the spine) and function (as coordinated by the nervous system), and how that relationship affects one's health.

Its future

Employment of chiropractors is projected to grow 15 percent from 2012 to 2022, faster than the average for all occupations, according to the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics. Also, more people are becoming interested in chiropractic care, since chiropractors use nonsurgical methods and do not prescribe drugs.

Getting licensed

If you're interested in a career as a chiropractor in California, you must meet the Board of Chiropractic Examiners' (Board's) strict requirements:

- Degree. You must receive a Doctor of Chiropractic (D.C.) degree from a Board-approved college. For a list of these colleges, go to the Board's website, www.chiro.ca.gov. The curriculum includes class time as well as clinical experience hours.
- NBCE. Chiropractic students must pass parts I, II, III, IV, and physiotherapy of the National Board of Chiropractic Examiners (NBCE) exam to be eligible to apply for a State license.

© 2012 Board of Chiropractic Examiners

- Fees. The standard license application fee is $100. The reciprocal application fee is $25. The Live Scan fingerprint services fees are paid directly to the Live Scan agency submitting the print. The fee to submit out-of-state fingerprint cards is $49.
- CLPPE. The California Law and Professional Practice Exam (CLPPE) is administered through computerized testing on a continuous basis. Once the Board determines the licensee applicant is qualified to take the CLPPE, the applicant will be notified by letter.

More details regarding requirements can be found in the Board's Chiropractic Initiative Act and Chiropractic Examiners Rules & Regulations. Both can be found on the Board's website, www.chiro.ca.gov.

The average time for an initial review of your license application is three to four weeks. At that time, either a letter requesting more information or letter authorizing you to sit for the CLPPE will be sent. The average processing time for an application once received by the Board is three to five months.

Staying licensed

Continuing education

To maintain an active chiropractic license, D.C.s must complete 24 hours of continuing education (CE) per year. Six of the 24 hours are mandatory from the following categories:

- Two hours of Ethics and Law
- Four hours in any one of or combination of the following topics:
  - Chiropractic Adjustive or Manipulation Technique
  - History Taking and Physical Examination Procedures
  - Proper and Ethical Billing and Coding

Of the 24 hours, 18 hours may be completed in general subject categories, four hours of CE credit can be gained by attending a full Board meeting, and a maximum of 12 CE hours may be completed through distance learning.

License renewal

It is your responsibility to keep your license current. When renewing, do it early. Remember to read and review your completed form carefully, check all boxes, and sign the form. Also, be sure you complete all required CE hours prior to submitting the renewal form, and that your check or money order is for the correct amount of $250. Incomplete renewal forms can cause a license to become delinquent, putting your ability to work at risk.

At this time, license renewals cannot be submitted online. Renewal forms are mailed to the address the Board has on file approximately 60 days prior to your license expiration date. If you did not receive your renewal form, you may print and complete a Replacement Renewal Form and mail it to our office.

Please note that the Board is required to deny an application for licensure and to suspend the license/certificate/registration of any applicant or licensee who has outstanding tax obligations due to the Franchise Tax Board (FTB) or the State Board of Equalization (BOE) and appears on either the FTB's or BOE's certified lists of top-500 tax delinquencies more than $100,000 (Assembly Bill 1424, Perea, Chapter 455, Statutes of 2011).

Show it off

Displaying your license is not only a well-deserved privilege, but also a requirement under section 308 of the Board's Chiropractic Examiners Rules & Regulations. Your license must be clearly visible to consumers at your place of practice, including any certificates issued for satellite offices.

Not worth it

Be aware of and understand the top licensee violations that may result in disciplinary actions. Frequent enforcement violations include:

- Insurance fraud
- Practicing with a nonvalid license
- Sexual misconduct, sexual abuse, or sexual relations with a patient, client, customer, or employee
- Excessive treatment
- Conviction of a crime (including DUI violation)
- False and/or misleading advertising
- Negligence/incompetence

More information regarding possible grounds for discipline can be found in the Board's Chiropractic Initiative Act and Chiropractic Examiners Rules & Regulations. Both can be found on the Board's website, www.chiro.ca.gov.
