CONVICTIONS — Note that convictions adjudicated in juvenile courts or convictions two years or older under Health and Safety Code sections 11357(b), (c), (d), (e) or section 11360(b) need not be reported. Convictions expunged or set aside pursuant to section 1203.4 of the California Penal Code or equivalent non-California law MUST be disclosed. If in doubt as to whether a conviction should be disclosed, it is best to disclose the conviction. The Board receives information regarding convictions that have been expunged. For reportable citations/arrests on your record including those set aside, dismissed or expunged, you are required to submit the following documentation for each incident:

- ❖ A signed detailed explanation. Specify what occurred on the date(s) in question, which resulted in the citation. If the explanation is not included or signed, you will be asked to resubmit.
- ❖ A copy of the police/incident report. If the report no longer exists or is not available, you must obtain a letter from the reporting agency, on their letterhead, specifying that fact.
- ❖ CERTIFIED court documents. If the documents no longer exist or are not available, you must obtain a letter from the court, on their letterhead, specifying that fact. Include proof of completion of any terms of parole, probation or any other sanctions imposed against you from the court or a law enforcement agency.

Police/incident reports, probation reports and court records sometimes no longer exist or are unavailable because they have been destroyed pursuant to an agency's or court's records retention and destruction schedule. Where records no longer exist or are not available, applicants would not be able to provide them with the application. A letter from the agency or court on letterhead specifying that the records no longer exist or are not available provides satisfactory proof of the fact from the agency or court itself.
